SUBJECT : Office of Security Monthly Report of Trends and Highlights for April 1974

1. Attached is the Office of Security Monthly Report of Trends and Highlights for April 1974.

2. There were neither significant increases or decreases in the workloads of the traditional areas of works involving investigations and clearances.

3. The processing time for about one-half the number of regular cases available for statistical measurement in March 1974 showed increases in time in investigation, in research and in appraisal for an overall increase of twelve days in total processing time. The total days for April is 43 as against 31 in March. An analysis of the processing time indicates that 225 cases were completed in less than 30 days in March as against 30 such cases in April.

6-9 I really don't think the re-wording of "Trends" for ISSG is fairly stated. What "new team"? The only thing we have (or had) left was the remains of the "old team" - no replacements for any of those departed or about to depart.
